

PROMETHEUS BOUND

An extraordinary staging of Prometheus Bound will be presented by the José Besprosvany Company from Belgium. With this new creation the famous director and choreographer José Besprosvany, has sought out an artistic form directly inspired from Far Eastern traditional arts, ancient Greek theatre, and Western contemporary dance and performing arts. He blends Greek mythology, dramatic play, contemporary dance and hip-hop, strange puppets and masked figures. The text, dance, music and visual work come together to produce a singular beauty, and at the same time strike a contemporary chord. The stage direction brings into question the thousand-year conflict that sums up the history of humanity – the recurring struggle between power and insurrection, between those who give orders and those who refuse to obey.
